

Become a volunteer at Abloom Film Festival 2024!

Are you interested in film and culture?

Do you want to contribute to a more inclusive society?

Become a part of our dynamic team!

At Abloom, everyone who wants to make an effort for others is welcome. Time to give is the foundation of volunteering!

Every year, the Abloom Film Festival works with many volunteers from every corner of society: businesses, students, refugees, and family and friends.

Without them/you, there would be no Abloom Film Festival!
